LATEST TELEGRAMS.

Chicago, November 28.—Ex-Governor and ex-Senator Richard Yates, of this State, died suddenly last night at Barnard's Hotel, St. Louis, where he had arrived on Sunday last from Fulton, Arkansas, where he had been as United States Commissioner to examine the Fulton, Cairo and Arkansas Railroad.

He was sick when he reached St. Louis, and was confined to his bed until yesterday, when he appeared better, and was preparing to go to his home in Illinois, when he suddenly fell upon the bed and expired without a word. Governor Yates was 55 years old.

Louisville, Ky., November 28.—A featiful tragedy occurred at Harrodsburg, Ky., yesterday. The trial of a suit in which P. B. Thompson, Sr., was principal on one side and Theodore Davis, Sr., on the other was in progress, and each principal was attended during the whole trial by his sons, fully armed. At the conclusion of the testimony, and while the lawyers were preparing instructions preparatory to commencing their arguments, a son of Thompson and a son of Davis moved toward the door, followed by all the others, and in a moment firing commenced, by which party is not known. Many shots were fired.

Theo. Davis, Sr., and his son Larry, were instantly killed. Theo. Davis, Jr., mentally wounded, has since died. P. B.

Thompson, Sr., and his two sons, P. B., Jr., and J. B., slightly wounded.

San Francisco, November 28.—Major

Robert Morrow, Paymaster of the Arizona Department, United States

Army, shot himself yesterday morning in his room at the Occidental Hotel, using a dragoon pistol. He fired three shots at his head, and the last time he put the pistol in his mouth and blew his head to pieces. The deceased was formerly private secretary of President Johnson. No cause is known for his terrible act. Morrow was very popular with the officers of the army, and was liked by all who knew him.

The remains of Col. Robert Morrow are at headquarters, under a guard.

The body has been embalmed, and it is thought it will be sent to his relatives in Tennessee. His friends are still at a loss to account for his act. They say when he settled with the Government his accounts were found to be perfectly correct.

Much dissatisfaction is expressed among sporting men at the result of the races at Agricultural Park yesterday, between St. James and Purdy, and Romeo and Cassius. The charge is openly made that both races were thrown off, but all bets and pools are declared off by the Judges.
